Re: Murphy v. Comm'r of Social Security, 20 CV 01419 (SLC)

Dear Magistrate Judge Cave:

I represent the plaintiff, Meredith Murphy, in her Social Security appeal, and Amanda Parsels represents the defendant, Commissioner of Social Security. We write to request an amendment to the current briefing schedule in order to allow potential settlement negotiations to continue. This is a joint request.

Ms. Parsels will continue to confer with the Agency regarding possible settlement but notes that it will take at least an additional 14 days for the Agency to respond.

We request that the time for Plaintiff to file her motion be extended for 30 days but that no other dates be amended. This would allow settlement discussion to continue yet not delay the overall action past current final deadlines. This is Plaintiff's second request for a change to the schedule.

The briefing schedule is currently as follows (Dkt. 21):

- Plaintiff's Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings (November 18, 2020)
- Defendant's Cross-Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings (January 19, 2021)
- Plaintiff's Reply (February 5, 2021)

The new proposed deadlines are as follows:

- Plaintiff's Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings (December 18, 2020)

- Defendant's Cross-Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings (January 19, 2021)(unchanged)
- Plaintiff's Reply (February 5, 2021)(unchanged)

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Sincerely,
